ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Cancelled BBQ's: Meals-on-Wheels and Lung Association
- We would like to support the Breakers and try another group date this season

PROGRAM

- Julie Bischoff introduced Joe Bailey who spoke about his early experiences in "22 degrees below zero Korea" as a Medic in the Army and how he should have become a doctor. They took care of many Koreans and supported several of the orphans. The jest of it is we are lucky to be living this country!

KIDZ FOR A CURE

- Don't forget to meet this Saturday, 8:50 am at Oak Park and together we will head over to Cottage Hospital and set up for BBQing.

Thanks from St. Andrews Pre School

The kids sent thank you drawings showing an assortment of good times at the BBQ

TradArt raised 5,000 to 8,000 dollars, depending on your source, through our BBQ team. Thanks to all for their success!
