- Dick will be contacting K International and turning in the names of next year's Suburban officers: Debbi Chew, president; Dick Gardner, Secretary. Others?

FIGHTING BACK MENTOR PROGRAM

- Make a difference in a kids life. Be a Mentor. Debbi introduced Lisa Falcone, Coordinator, and Juliana Lee, Advocate of Mentor Program which is part of the Council on Alcoholism & Drug Abuse in Santa Barbara. Lisa explained the mentors help build self-confidence, resiliency, and social skills by developing a positive one-on-one relationship where support and friendship are provided. Juliana showed us an inspiring video of a Mentor and Mentee. This is an excellent program for youth in our community, but there is a shortage of mentors. About 50 students are on a waiting list, but there are a lot more that want to be. An excellent program—thanks to Lisa and Juliana. It looks like we will be doing a BBQ for them sometime in August.

HAPPY & SADS

- Al      daughter, who works at KTLA, got to tell the reporters how to pronounce Santa Barbara names correctly. Even then, some got it wrong.
- Julie   Dog sitting and evacuating twice with one huge dog and one blind dog... ended up at the office on the hard floor sleeping with the dogs
- Bill    thought the whole thing was very entertaining
- Al      Virginia and daughter evacuated, but not to the DP Red Cross, but to a trailer
- Dick   provided a shelter for daughter and son-in-law
- Wes    had a sad story about a woman who lost her job and house burned down
- John   Shirley made cookies as a thank you to all that called and offered help this last week. The fire came very close but the firefighters did what they do best. And the oak tress helped protect the house also.
- Debbi   wasn't about to evacuate, despite the calls from relatives, because the command post for firefighters was across the street at Earl Warren Showgrounds. Deb will soon be out at the Goleta store and promoted to Manager!
- Keven   appeased his wife and evacuated with no problems
